Project Ideas for Your Family to Show Generosity

1. Have a penny jar for extra change. When it is full, donate the money to a charitable organization.
2. Support a needy child through donating clothes and toys to a local charitable organization.
3. Anonymously support another child in going on a classroom field trip.

4. Send an extra snack for your child to share with someone who may have forgotten their snack.

5. Donate school supplies to your child's classroom.
6. Adopt a family with special needs during the holiday season. Invite them for a meal or take food or other necessities to them.
7. Get to know new neighbors by inviting them over for a cook-out or taking cookies by their house.
